TINA CIELATKA

This 6 weeks insider is about Mrs. Tina Cielatka. Mrs. Tina is in her first year of teaching, she has been a substitute at Mangham High School and Junior High for about 11 years. She teaches 6th grade Fine Arts and 8th grade Social Studies. Her hobbies include sewing, crafting, and beading. She has been married 23 years with 5 children, 2 grandchildren, and 1 dog. She is proud to be a U.S. Navy Veteran. She is a survivor of breast cancer and she couldn't have done it without her family, her schools, and the entire Dragon Nation.

Reminders

Veterans Day Program

Written by: Mason Willbanks

Thank you all for attending our Veterans Day Program. We had a great time with our veterans. Mangham Elementary Grades 3-5 sang " God Bless the USA " by Lee Greenwood. While lower elementary grades made paper flags and dressed in red white and blue. The creed for the Air Force, Army, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, space force, and Navy was spoken by MES, MJHS, and MHS students . To our veterans reading this Thank You For Your Service!
